

"Give Thanks, My Soul, for Harvest"

Munich 7 6 7 6 D

Wir Christenleut, adapted by Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, 1809 - 1847

- 1) Give_ thanks my_ soul for har - vest, for store of__ fruit_ and grain.
- 2) Give_ thanks, my_ soul, for rich - es, of wood-land_, mine, and hill;
- 3) Give_ thanks, my_ soul, for la - bours that strength
and_ days_ em - ploy;

But_ know the ow - ner_ gi - veth that we may_ share_ a - gain.
But_ know that gold_ and_ tim - ber are the Cre - a - tor's still.
But_ know the Mas - ter's_ pur - pose brings toil as_ well_ as_ joy.

Where men are lone and_ hun - gry, or lit - tle_ chil-dren_ cry,
God lends them to His_ ste - wards to fa-shion_ and to_ share,
Show for, O God, Thy_ pur-pose; di - rect our will, and_ hand

Wish gifts from God's rich_ boun-ty may thank-ful-ness_ re - ply.
Pro - vi - ding all earth's_ chil-dren the bless-ing of_ His care.
To share Thy love, and_ boun-ty with all in e - v'ry land.

William Watkins Reid, 1890 - 1983
