

#263 Praise to God, Immortal Praise

Orientis Partibus 7 7 7 7

from 13th century French melody attributed to Pierre de Corbell, ? - 1222 adapted by Richard Redhead, 1820 - 1901; harmonized by Derek Holman, 1931 - 2019

1) Praise to God, im - mor - tal praise,
2) For the bless - ings of the fields,

For the love that crowns our days;
For the stores the gar - den yields,

Boun - teous Source of e - v'ry joy,
Flocks that whi - ten all the plain;

Let Thy praise our tongues em - ploy:
Yel - low sheaves of ri - pened grain,

3) All that spring with boun - teous hand
4) These to Thee, O God, we owe,

Scat - ters o'er the smi - ling land,
Source whence all our bless - ings flow;

All that li - b'ral au - tumn pours
And for these our souls shall raise

From its rich o'er flow - ing stores.
Grate - ful vows and so - lemn praise.
