Bartholdy

"Take up your cross," the Saviour said, "if you would take up your cross; let not its weight fill your weak soul."

"Take up your cross, nor heed the shame, and let your foolish pride be still." Your Lord for you en-

"Take up your cross, then, in His strength, and calmly follow Christ, nor think till my disciple be. Deny yourself, the soul with vain alarm. His strength shall bear your every danger brave. 'Twill guide you to a death to lay it down; for only those who..."
